

1000

1000 studios of architecture and design in India frame the landscape of current work and thought. These studios frame the idea of contemporary Indian architecture and contribute substantially to its identity.

100

LARGE projects that have a huge consequence: Anything from 1001 Square Meters to 10,000 Square Meters.

100 projects - products of work from these studios become critical case-studies in the concerns, issues, language and ethos of practice in India. These projects are content-rich and should have an impact on the discourse - professional and academic.

10

10 Projects from this set transcend the framework of the probable and surprise us with ideas that deserve chronicling.

These 10 projects represent the promise of things to come: the work that will be of value in the future. This is THE MERIT LIST.
